

Life Safety

Safety you can see and hear

The Honeywell Home 5800COMBO is the Industry's first professionally monitored, wireless, combination Smoke and Carbon Monoxide (CO) detector.

Increased Protection

- The four sensing elements significantly improve Smoke and CO detection, while also helping to reduce false alarms

Loud and Clear

- Multi-lingual voice annunciation in English or Spanish with emergency notifications that include "Warning, Smoke, Evacuate" and "Warning, Carbon Monoxide, Move to Fresh Air"

Fast and Easy Installation

- Provides dual capabilities in a single device—reducing installation time and cost

Always on the Lookout

- Professionally monitored life safety protection
- The 360° viewable alarm with status LEDs show status alerts and Smoke or CO detection

Long Term Performance

- With a 10-year life span and an end-of-life notification, your customers can rest easy knowing they are protected
